Conference Centres and Various Choices of Seminar Venues

Conference Centres

Australia is a land of numerous contrasts. It offers seashores, mountain ranges and sprawling metropolitan areas packed with cafes, dining establishments and tourist destinations which cater to almost all styles and preferences. It is no surprise then that Australia plays host to a large number of conventions and functions each year. From the Gold Coast to Sydney and Canberra to Melbourne, Australia is certainly filled with conference centres which could hold all sorts of occasion and match any budget.

Below is a listing of the types of venues you may like to check out:

Summit Locations

Melbourne City is just one of Australia's countless conference centre spots. In the central business district, Clarion Suites Gateway offers a large renovated conference room with all the amenities a small summit requires. For events of any kind such as trade shows, business conference calls, and more - Waterfront Venues gives its own in-house coordinators to enhance their modern-day and stunning facilities. For events which need beautiful views, SkyHigh Mount Dandenong is great.

Meeting Venues

With respect to boardroom conferences or working lunches that have to be held away from the workplace, a smaller setting will do. Group meetings could be held in function rooms or even in penthouse suites. Medina Grand Melbourne provides the ideal amenities for a small seminar with versatile conference rooms catering for as few as 5 guests. For all those travelling on business that could not have a chance to go into the city to meet with colleagues or partners, airport hotels will be vital. Such locations will have standard meeting rooms with whiteboards and markers, television monitors and DVD players.

Conference Hotels

Five-star hotels have a comprehensive suite of services and facilities to help make any mid-sized summit a success. Modern and stylish amenities will accommodate the most important conference attendee. Melbourne Marriott Hotel has the ideal surrounds for a conference of up to 100 guests in the centre of Melbourne City while Crowne Plaza Melbourne focuses in functions of nearly 150 attendees and offers sights of the Yarra River and beyond.

Unique Venues

Unique venues just like rooftops, private yachts and museums offer a superb option to customary conference centres. While they most likely are not ideal for all event types, if you need to make a lasting and memorable impact on your guests a distinctive venue could be the great option. Carlton Brewhouse provides a special setting with the choice to give brewery tours and beer tasting for your guests.
